Constitution Day was observed throughout the Chicagoland group on Monday, September 18, 2017. The Chicagoland Student Activities Association (SAA) working in conjunction with Dr. John Morello, senior professor from the college of Liberal Arts and Sciences and Visiting Prof. Phil Barton, college of Multimedia Design and Development created a video/powerpoint presentation how the constitution applies to everyday life. All campuses and centers showed the same video/powerpoint throughout the day in the Student Commons area(s). Also, all campuses/centers provided “patriotic” snacks and offered quizzes and other fun information regarding the constitution.

Addison campus & centers
Students and staff were invited to participate in activities in the Student Commons from 4pm-6pm:

Chicago-Campbell campus and centers
Students and staff were invited to participate in activities in the Student Commons from 2pm-6pm:
Chicago-Loop campus
Students and staff were invited to participate in activities in the Student Commons from 5pm-6:30pm:

![Image of activities at Chicago-Loop campus]

Tinley Park campus and Merrillville center
Students and staff were invited to participate in activities in the Student Commons from 2pm-6pm:

![Image of activities at Tinley Park campus and Merrillville center]